MEMBERSHIP APPLICATION & RENEWAL FORM

We're Growing...Come help us!

- Our "Scull Shoals Scholar" program is in Social Studies classrooms around the state.
- It will be placed on our web site www.scullshoals.org soon.
- We've planted some exciting new developments at our Education Center on the Macedonia Road. The Durham Herb Walk, an interpreted trail to see native plants used by Dr. Lindsey Durham and other 19th century curers is now in place.
- A replica Indian sweat lodge was built on the Durham trail by Oconee-area Boy Scouts.

Read about Georgia's past:

- Bob Skarda's latest book: Early Oconee Indians-A Rich Life by the River, is now available along with: Scull Shoals-The Mill Village That Vanished in Old Georgia through the website, www.oldoconeebooks.com or www.scullshoals.org
- Debbie Cosgrove and Ellen Whitaker's book on Dr. Durham's "receipts" or remedies is also listed on www.scullshoals.org.
- Dr. Jack Wynn provides an in depth digital version of the Scull Shoals excavation project report.
- Newsletters will be emailed to you for updated FOSS events.
